ACCOMMODATION

During your stay, The Retreat and the surrounding grounds are exclusively yours to enjoy.

The Retreat has six luxurious bedrooms for up to 14 guests. The rooms are styled and arranged with distinct character. While some rooms sleep two guests, others are adaptable to sleeping three guests if required. Every bedroom is furnished with high quality linen, towels, deluxe toiletries, robes and slippers. Honoring the equestrian heritage brought by the previous and current owners of The Retreat, all of our bedrooms are named after horses that hold special significance to the country house.

Embrace the indulgence of this six-bedroom historic residence once home to the Duchess of Westminster. Enjoy the tranquility and relaxed feeling of home that it has to offer you. Have your very own retreat at The Retreat!

FINE DINING

Wow your guests with exceptional cuisine in a warm, inviting atmosphere that sets the perfect tone for your celebration.

Our elegant and intimate dining room, where every detail is designed for comfort and beauty, offering a welcoming space to share your first meal as newlyweds with your closest friends and family.

Indulge in delicious fine dining, crafted with the finest local produce, and prepared with love and care. Should you choose to select Chef Shane Deane as your head chef for the day, he can offer a bespoke menu tailored to your tastes, ensuring every bite is as memorable as your special day.

The O'Driscoll family are delighted to help make your special day as unique as you are.

We invite you stay and enjoy what has been our home for the past 100 years. Originally constructed in the 1850s and once home to the Duchess of Westminster, P.J. O'Driscoll Senior purchased The Retreat in 1919 and it has been the family home to three generations of the O'Driscoll family.

Enjoy the escapism, luxury and tranquility that this home has to offer and what is more, be sure to take full advantage of being located at the gateway to West Cork!

Go raibh míle maith agaibh,

The O'Driscoll Family.
